PENN STREET MARKET

Open Friday 11am - 6pm

Located in the 800 Block of Penn Street
www.pennstreetmarket.org

Purchase your Christmas trees, wreaths, window swags and garland at the Penn Street Market in December. The open-air farmers market is located across from the Manor at Market Square.

On Friday, December 7th and 14th, local farmer Jeremy Freymoyer , will be selling Douglas Fir and Fraser Fir trees cut from their 20-acres of Christmas trees, located at the base of the Blue Mountainin Upper Bern/Tilden Twps. The Freymoyer Farm is a fourth-generation tree farm. Trees will range from 3' to 8', with prices starting at $15. Customers can order larger trees or diferent species by calling the farm at 610-301-1829. Market hours will be from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Other Penn Street market vendors who will be participating in the Holiday Market are: Griesemer Beekeeping selling honey products; PerkUp Truck, selling delicious hot and cold drinks and desserts; Lally's Cake Creations selling cupcakes and assorted baked goods, and canine treats; Chapman's Deli (12/7) and Callowhill Café (12/14) serving lunch menu items.

Non-food vendors will include Sarah Ann Stewart, jewelry; Deb Hallacher, hand-made paper and ornaments; the Reading Eagle newspaper.

For more information about becoming a vendor or shopping at the market, contact Sheila Miller, Berks County Agricultural Coordinator at 610-898-5482 or smiller@countyofberks.com; or the website at www.pennstreetmarket.org.